PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a warrant.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number      Nature of Noncompliance

1

Standard Condition # 2: After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.Supporting Evidence: Mark Person failed to report as directed on February 12, 2019. On February 11, 2019, Mr. Person reported after his release from the Bureau of Prisons. Mr. Person spoke to U.S. probation officer Schull. He was directed to report back on February 12, 2019, for his intake with the undersigned officer. Mr. Person has not reported as directed or called to set up another appointment with the undersigned officer. Numerous attempts to locate Mr. Person have gone unreturned. Mr. Person's whereabouts are unknown to the U.S. Probation Office.

On July 28, 2017, Mark Person signed his judgment for case number 2:14CR00115-RMP-1 during his initial intake, indicating he understood all conditions ordered by the Court. Specifically, Mr. Person was made aware by his U.S. probation officer that he must report as directed.

Standard Condition # 5: You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.

Supporting Evidence: Mark Person failed to report any change in his address since on or about February 11, 2019. On February 11, 2019, Mr. Person reported after his release from the Bureau of Prisons. Mr. Person was told to report back on February 12, 2019, for his intake with the undersigned officer. Mr. Person did not report as directed and has not called to inform the undersigned officer of his whereabouts. The undersigned officer has spoken with his mother regarding Mr. Person's whereabouts. She stated that she had spoken with him and directed him to call the undersigned officer. Mr. Person told her that he would do so immediately. Mr. Person failed to call or leave a voice message with the undersigned officer. Mr. Person's whereabouts are unknown to the U.S. Probation Office.

On July 28, 2017, Mark Person signed his judgment for case number 2:14CR00115-RMP-1 during his initial intake, indicating he understood all conditions ordered by the Court. Specifically, Mr. Person was made aware by his U.S. probation officer that he must notify his U.S. probation officer of any changes in address.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a warrant requiring the offender to appear to answer to the allegation(s) contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
